Exemption or Waiver of Fees:

- Only a natural person is eligible for the waiver or suspension of fees.
- Persons receiving Public Assistance are entitled to a waiver of fees, provided that the assistance provides the primary source of their support. Proof of eligibility must be shown by ex-parte affidavit filed with the Court.
- Other Indigent Persons. If a person can show by ex-parte affidavit that she/he is unable to pay fees, the Tribal Court may order those fees waived.
- Affidavits. An affidavit required may be signed by either the person(s) seeking the waiver, or any person(s) having personal knowledge of the facts required to be shown if the person(s) for whom the affidavit is made is unable to sign due to being a minor or other incompetent person.
- Reinstatement or Requirement to Pay Fees. If the payment of a fee has been waived or suspended, the Court may on its own initiative order the person receiving the waiver to pay when the reason for the waiver or suspension no longer exists and providing the case is still pending or open.
- LTBB Tribal Citizens will be exempt from UA and PBT fees with Tribal ID.

Certification of Adoption

The Tribal Judiciary unanimously adopted the above schedule of court fees on June 18, 2008 and as amended March 14, 2011.

Honorable JoAnne Gasco, Chief Judge
